Sunday Readings: Year A

Weekday Readings: Year 2

The Dream of Saint Joseph, Philippe de Champaigne (1442-1443)

In his place of emotional turmoil Joseph is visited by the angel of the Lord in his dream. The angel tells him not to abandon Mary, but to believe that she remains a virgin and that her child is conceived through the Holy Spirit. What an extraordinary step of faith, of trust, God asks of Joseph. What love Joseph must have had for God and for Mary in order to risk believing that all of this is true. This is what lies behind the rather prosaic words of Matthew: 'when Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife.'

What God asks of Mary and Joseph he asks of each one of us: to believe, to trust, to hope, even when our emotions are in turmoil and we may find it very difficult to comprehend. This was the path of faith for Mary and Joseph, it is the path of faith for every Christian. And it will lead us, finally, to share in the salvation of God.

As on Christmas Day we celebrate the birth of Our Saviour, I wish you all a very happy and blessed Christmas and peace and joy to your families. Thank you for all your devotion to the life of St Thomas A Becket parish over the year.

Mgr Matthew

Archbishop John's Christmas Message

"The beautiful truth of Christmas is that because of God in Christ we are never lost. God chose to be near us, to stay close to us always, to draw us to himself, always. In his endless mercy, the Lord Jesus chose to love us, so we could know and believe that "God is love" (1 John 4:16). In turn, all the Lord Jesus asks of us is to not be afraid and to say yes to him, to draw close to him, to love him". You can view the full message at rcaos.org.uk/christmasmessage2025.
